Death Investigation

Brown Township, Paulding County, Ohio—On Tuesday, March 29, 2022, at 2:20 p.m., deputies were dispatched to the Sherman Cemetery at the intersection of Rd 179 & Rd 140, for a deceased male body discovered in the western portion of the cemetery.

“We are treating this as a suspicious death. There are no obvious signs of the cause of death,” said Sheriff Jason K. Landers. “The body was taken from the scene to the Lucas County Coroners Office where an autopsy will be done. My staff will work with the county Coroner’s Office to identify the body.”

The body is a white male, about 30 years of age, dressed in blue jeans and a black shirt. The male has dark hair and beard, and multiple tattoos. The body is approximately 5’10” and 250 pounds. There was no identification found at the scene.
