Press Release

October 21, 2016

Paulding, Ohio—There will be an open house held at the Paulding County Jail located at 500 East Perry Street on Sunday October 30, 2016 from 3:00pm – 6:00pm. This will be an opportunity for citizens of Paulding County to walk through the jail and see what their tax dollars are paying for.

“A citizen at one of my public meetings suggested I should hold an open house to allow folks to see what we are paying for, and that it is empty,” said Sheriff Jason K. Landers. “I felt this was an excellent idea and I hope everyone who might be undecided about where they stand regarding the additional tax levy to hire the additional jobs it takes to run this place will come take a tour and ask questions. I believe folks will be shocked to see this facility has been sitting empty and unused for 8 years,” said Sheriff Landers.

If anyone has questions or comments regarding the jail, please contact the Sheriff's Office at 419-399-3791.
